TEN, NINE, EIGHT...

We can't think of a better night to go all out than New Year's Eve. And you know you have no desire to fight the crowd to watch the "peach drop" (whose idea was that anyway?). So we've mapped out everything you need to say goodbye to 2007 and usher in 2008 with a bang, from dinner for two in the kitchen at Park 75 with a bottle of the city's best Cabernet to an overnight stay at The Glenn Hotel with all-access to a chauffeur-driven Bentley. When the clock strikes midnight, you'll be the most stylish reveler around with your sterling silver noise maker and titanium hand-stitched leather phone. Tonight, money's no object. Go ahead and sing Auld Lang Syne, well, like a rock star. A

$300
